Abstract by F. Onken - DLQ Data Portal

For the automated data exchange the DLQ data portal was developed based on ISOagriNET. Hereby, the data transfer between the data processing centers, farms and industry can be carried out in real-time. The participating partners are able to generate information for an efficient herd management from the relevant data.